Release of Thinking Cities #7

We are proud to launch the seventh issue of Thinking Cities at the 2016 Polis Conference, a joint magazine of Polis and H3B Media.

Thinking Cities contributes to the debate on urban transport and showcases exciting innovations and good practice in this field. It helps stakeholders understand the central role local and regional authorities play in rolling out transport innovation.

This issue of Thinking Cities reflects on the role automated vehicles can play in cities, and how autonomous a city has to be, to meet the mobility needs of its citizens.

SITE VISITS

Departure: 14.15h. The meeting point for all site visits is at the registration desk of the conference venue.

1. CITY BICYCLE TOUR: SUMP AND ARCHITECTURE

Rotterdam is the Gateway to Europe, a port city with unprecedented opportunities as well as challenges. The Rotterdam municipality is working towards an innovative, green and accessible city. A strong economy, healthy citizens, and an attractive residential and living environment are the main goals and form the underlying principles to Rotterdam's Sustainable Urban Mobility Plan. Rotterdam is also a trailblazer as far as architecture is concerned. The city is internationally known for its daring modern buildings.

In this visit you will learn about and see more of the Rotterdam Sustainable Urban Mobility Plan in practice and pass by some of the city's architectural highlights.

Ending: 16.30h at Zwaan Bikes – Weena 695 (5 minutes' walk from the Doelen/Rotterdam Centraal)

2. WHERE PORT AND CITY MEET: M4H, RDM AND HEIJPLAAT

In cooperation with private companies, the City and Port Authority are creating special, innovative living and working areas in Stadshavens Rotterdam in the coming 20 to 40 years, thus reinforcing the economic structure of both the city and the port.

The visit will show you the highlights of this neighbourhood and its transformation, as well as address the related urban mobility challenges. M4H, once one of the world's largest ports for the fruit trade, is now turning into a modern and innovative working area and, over time, into an attractive residential neighbourhood. RDM campus, now part of Rotterdam's Innovation District, is the innovation showcase of the port area, where applied science is visualised in an attractive way. Heijplaat, founded in 1914 as a garden village residency for the RDM shipyards employees, will transform into a climate neutral residential area.

Ending: 17.30h at Watertaxi Willemskade/Waterbus (20 minutes by metro to the Doelen, transport ticket provided)

3. PARKING: STRATEGY AND AWARD WINNER

Learn more about Rotterdam's parking strategy, including a visit to the Kruisplein parking and the EPA award winning Markthal parking.

Ending: 17.30h at parking Markthal (Blaak station, 20 minutes by metro to the Doelen, transport tickets provided)

4. AUTOMATION: IMAGINE!

At Kralingse Zoom in Rotterdam, the only automated system operating at grade and containing at grade intersections with other traffic is operational (since 1999 and the 2nd generation since 2006). The system is still unique today, as all other autonomous vehicles now still feature an attendant. Can you imagine that this type of system as operational at Rivium can actually be extended and run on even less-segregated roads?

Ending: 17.30h at metro stop Kralingse Zoom (20 minutes by metro to the Doelen, transport tickets provided)
