

Tijl Dendal is a policy officer at the Department Mobility and Public Works of the region of Flanders. He focuses on city logistics policy and is currently coordinating the development of Flanders' policy framework on urban freight. Furthermore, he also monitors European policy and financing opportunities. Recently, he has been successfully leading projects on off-hour deliveries, facilitation of stakeholder dialogue, data collection for urban freight and edited a best practice handbook on city logistics.