The team also funds the Strategic Walk Network through Walk London, six routes that cover London and which is scheduled for completion by 2012.

The team are always happy to deal with questions, provide input and technical advice for schemes and to identify areas where the team can work with all interested parties to deliver an improved pedestrian environment for London. If you have a question, please don't hesitate to get in touch. In addition the team arrange training courses related to the pedestrian environment.

Meet the walking team

MAYOR OF LONDON

Transport for London

Transport for London's 'Walking and Accessibility' team is working to improve the pedestrian environment for all users. The team form a part of Cycling, Walking and Accessibility (CWA) within Surface Transport's new Walking, Cycling & Local Delivery directorate.

The team's vision is to make London walking friendly. This vision encapsulates the desire to make walking the first choice for short journeys and to increase the number of longer journeys made on foot.

We are a small team but our work is extensive across six main areas:

- Walking and accessibility on the Transport for London Road Network (TLRN).
- Walking on Borough roads.
- Consultation and development control work.
- Legible London delivery.
- Promotion.
- Research and auditing.
