

Automated vehicles and urban traffic management

MAVEN stakeholder consultation workshop
15 November 2016, Barcelona, 09.30-15.30hrs

Agenda

Venue: Media TIC building, Roc Boronat 117, 08018 Barcelona - Room: Espai Barcelona

09.30	Welcome, Suzanne Hoadley, Polis
09.45	Setting the scene: recent developments in automated driving, Jaap Vreeswijk, MAPtm
10.00	Managing Automated Vehicle: MAVEN project introduction, Robbin Blokpoel, Dynniq
10.20	The perspective of a city authority: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Phil Williams, Digital Greenwich</li><li>- Gert Blom, city of Helmond</li></ul>
11.00	Discussion on MAVEN use cases & high level requirements, Ondrej Pribyl, CTU
12.00	Lunch
13.00	Interactive discussion on views, ideas and concerns of automated driving in relation to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• the societal objectives of a city authority</li><li>• the traffic manager's role and responsibilities</li><li>• impact assessment</li><li>• the transition phase</li></ul>
15.15	Conclusions
15.30	Close

The day before the MAVEN stakeholder consultation workshop, there will be a workshop on C-ITS and cities, organised jointly by the CIMEC and CODECS projects. For further information: www.cimec-project.eu or www.codecs-project.eu

MAVEN has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement n° 690727