

Automated vehicles and urban traffic management

MAVEN stakeholder consultation workshop organised in cooperation with CoEXist and TransAID

24 October 2018, Greenwich (London) 10.30-17.00hrs

Draft agenda

- 10.30: Welcome by host, Kim Smith, Digital Greenwich
- 10.40: Introduction to the MAVEN project and workshop, Meng Lu, Dynniq and Suzanne Hoadley, Polis
- 11.00: Greenwich in the spotlight: Living Lab and MOVE-UK project, speaker tbc
- 11.30: Key insights from Matthew Barth, University of California and Jaap Vreeswijk, MAPtm:
- ) Traffic management through C-ITS and automation
  - ) Deploying new digital infrastructure – why, how and what if I don't?
  - ) How automation may change the shape & form of a city
- 12.30: Lunch
- 13.30: Preliminary results from the MAVEN user impacts survey, Ondrej Pribyl, Czech Technical University, Prague
- 14.00: Breakout sessions
- ) Planning for automation
  - ) Traffic management in an increasingly connected and automated transport system
  - ) Do cities and regions need a traffic management systems' and ITS strategy?
- 16.30: Refreshments
- 16.00: EC communication on automated mobility, DG MOVE, European Commission
- 17.00: Workshop close

Venue: Digital Greenwich, 11th Floor, 6 Mitre Passage, Greenwich Peninsula, London SE10 0ER