

First SUMI Application Dialogue

18 June 2019, 16:00 – 18:00

Venue: De Oosterport, Trompsingel 27, Groningen, Netherlands

15.00 – 16:00	COFFEE AND REGISTRATION
16.00	WELCOME, TOUR DE TABLE, AND PROJECT OVERVIEW Ivo Cré, Polis
16.15	AN UPDATE ON THE CURRENT STATUS OF SUMI Susanne Böhler-Baedeker, Rupprecht Consult
16.30	INTRODUCTION TO THE FOCUS GROUPS Ivo Cré, Polis
16.40	BREAKOUT SESSIONS Definition and validity of the indicators Moderator: Susanne Böhler-Baedeker, Rupprecht Consult <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Identification of shortcomings and bias in the definition of indicators or composition of indicators</li><li>• Possible refinement of definition and terminology of the indicators</li></ul> Challenges in data collection and indicator application Moderator: Cosimo Chiffi, TRT Trasporti e Territorio <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Strategies to overcome barriers to data collection</li><li>• Methodological consistency in the application of the indicator set across urban areas</li></ul> Recommendations from cities to benchmarking Moderator: Dirk Engels, Transport &amp; Mobility Leuven <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Benefits, limitations, political sensitivity of benchmarking among cities</li><li>• Practical needs and requirements, specific interests, usage scenarios envisaged by cities</li></ul>
17.40	WRAP UP AND CONCLUSIONS FROM THE THREE BREAKOUT SESSIONS
18.00	END

The SUMI project is funded by the European Commission under the Service contract No MOVE/B4/SER/2017-358/SI2.770605 relating to Technical support related to sustainable urban mobility indicators

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Event venue: De Oosterport, Trompsingel 27, Groningen, Netherlands

De Oosterpoort is an important centre of Groningen's cultural life. Dating from the late 19th century, De Oosterpoort is evolving to respect the highest standard of sustainability. De Oosterpoort is committed to use clean energy, reduce waste, and source locally-grown biological products for its catering services.

De Oosterpoort is only 10 minutes away from Groningen's Central Station by walking. If you prefer to use public transport, you can use this journey planner <https://9292.nl/en>

Contact:

Piero Valmassoi, Project Officer, Polis

Phone: +32 2 500 56 71

E-mail: pvalmassoi@polisnetwork.eu

The SUMI project is funded by the European Commission under the Service contract No MOVE/B4/SER/2017-358/SI2.770605 relating to Technical support related to sustainable urban mobility indicators