EUCAR PERSPECTIVE ON URBAN MOBILITY

Europe's urban areas¹ are home to 70% of the EU population² and generate up to 85% of Europe's GDP³. Thus they play a central role for the future development of the EU and Horizon Europe, the coming framework programme, needs to address challenges that cities are facing. As

You need the big picture to guide you - But if you want changes in real life, you need to get down to the specifics
