

SPROUT Final Conference:

Understanding the transition in urban mobility to navigate future policy.

Date and place: 17 February 2023 – Brussels, Belgium.

Location: Scotland House Brussels, Rond-Point Schuman 6, 1040 Brussels. Register. *Bring a valid ID for check-in.

Time (CET)	Agenda item	Who
08:30–9:00	Check-in (Bring a valid ID) / Coffee & Pastry	ALL
09:00–09:30	Welcome and European Commission opening	Thiago Tavares (CINEA) Teresa de la Cruz (ZLC)
09:30–10:30	SPROUT's response for transitioning cities to climate neutrality through innovation Project objectives and their fulfillment, further research needs.	Teresa de la Cruz (ZLC) Georgia Ayfandopoulou (CERTH/HIT)
10:30–12:00	SPROUT methodologies, tools and resources Overview of the following methodologies, tools and resources developed in the project: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scenario-making under uncertainty • Mobility ecosystem innovation readiness assessment • Mobility liveability assessment • SPROUT toolbox and e-learning courses 	Sara Tori (VUB) Elpida Xenou (CERTH/HIT) Dimos Touloumidis (CERTH/HIT) Stefan Werland (WI)
12:00–13:00	Lunch Break
13:00–14:00	Internationalisation of innovation International and industry cooperation as one of the main innovation accelerators in urban mobility.	Georgia Ayfandopoulou (CERTH-HIT) María Eugenia López-Lambas (UPM) Karen Vancluysen (POLIS) Fernando Liesa (ALICE-ETP) Tommaso Gecchelin (NEXT) Antonio Guadagnino (Paradigma) Delphine Grandsart (European Passengers' Federation)

14:00-15:30	SPROUT City-led Innovation SPROUT city-led innovative policy response and direct learnings from SPROUT cities' first-hand experiences	Karen Vancluysen , Mark Meyer and Daniel Herrera (POLIS) SPROUT pilot and validation cities
-------------	--	---

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No.814910

